

Empower Data Confidence

for What Matters Now, on the Platform Built for What's Next.

What is Clearsense?

Clearsense is the first scalable data platform-as-a-service purpose-built to accelerate data maturity and enable true digital dexterity. It's the data integration layer and enrichment hub you've been missing. In one end to end platform, Clearsense integrates your data from any source, maintains line of sight from source to target, jumpstarts ROI in your existing Business Intelligence (BI) tools and unlocks value for clinical, operational, financial and research stakeholders without the need to hire specialized staff.

Why Healthcare ❤️ Clearsense:

Privacy & Security

The Clearsense Platform rests in a secure, HIPAA-compliant, SOC 2 Certified, HITRUST verified, private cloud.

Speed to Value

Clearsense rapidly ingests all data types at unprecedented speed, unmatched by traditional extract and load processes. It's why Clearsense customers realize a faster speed to value on their journey to data maturity.

Ease of Use

From operations and finance to clinical and research, Clearsense is the honest broker of data, offering a simple, intuitive user experience focused on outcomes.

One Partner = One Platform

More than just an enrichment layer, Clearsense is the end to end solution from data collection to predictive analytics, empowering you to do more with fewer financial and human resources.

Data Science on Demand

Built by data scientists, the Clearsense Data Science Workbench empowers citizen data scientists to create models with confidence, with a clear understanding of drivers.

Tool Agnostic

Clearsense was built to optimize your current tools and fill gaps where you need it most.

The Toolset that Gives Business the Power to Get More
